Production
Basmati rice is grown on traditional rice terraces. After the harvest, the rice is cleaned and packed.
Product Information
Aromatic, fluffy scented rice from the Indian states Uttarakhand and Uttar Pradesh at the foothills of the Himalaya mountains. The traditional Basmati variety 'Dehradun Type 3' is manually harvested and threshed by Indian peasant families according to the "Code of Practice on Basmati Rice". This open pollinated variety makes it possible for the farmers to be independent from patented and hybrid seeds as it enable them to grow new rice plants from the seeds of their previous own harvest. Enjoy this Basmati rice which will release its unmistakable scent while being cooked.
